

US H-1B Visa Stamping — Interview Questions & Sample Answers

Sample answers show the style officers like — short, specific and honest. Replace the details with your own true situation; never memorise someone else's story.

Q1. Which company will you work for?

Sample answer: I will work for XYZ Technologies Inc. as a Senior Software Engineer at their Austin, Texas office.

Tip: Company, role and location — exactly as on the I-797 and LCA.

Q2. What will be your job responsibilities?

Sample answer: I will design and build backend microservices for their payments platform using Java and Spring Boot, and lead a team of three developers.

Tip: Describe your duties in plain words. They must match the job description in the petition.

Q3. What is your annual salary?

Sample answer: My offered salary is $125,000 per year.

Tip: Must match the I-797 / LCA wage.

Q4. How did you find this job?

Sample answer: A recruiter from the company contacted me on LinkedIn. I had three rounds of technical interviews and one with the hiring manager.

Q5. Who is the end client? (for consulting roles)

Sample answer: I will be working on a project for ABC Bank through my employer. I have the client letter and the statement of work here.

Tip: Know the client name, project, duration and your manager's name.

Q6. What is your educational background?

Sample answer: I have a B.Tech in Computer Science from VIT and eight years of experience in backend development.

Q7. How long have you worked for this employer?

Sample answer: I have been working with them for two years on H-1B. This is my visa renewal.

Tip: For renewals, carry recent pay slips and W-2s.

Q8. Have you ever worked in the US before?

Sample answer: Yes, I worked in the US from 2021 to 2024 on an H-1B with my previous employer.

Interview day tips

- Know your petition: job title, salary, worksite, employer and (if relevant) end client.
- If you get a 221(g) slip, note exactly what is requested and respond quickly.

- Don't travel to India for stamping without a confirmed interview date — appointments have been moved at short notice.
